The Cat in the Hat reads Dr. Seuss’ popular ‘Green Eggs and Ham’ at Community House

WEST HAVEN (March 9, 2012) – A special appearance by the Cat in the Hat at the West Haven Community House was enjoyed by five classes of Head Start children recently.

The Cat in the Hat, also known as Head Start office manager Kelly Canning Ruckoldt of West Haven, mesmerized the gatherings with an impassioned reading of the childhood favorite, “Green Eggs & Ham,” by the famous American child author, Dr. Seuss, who was born Theodor Seuss Geisel in 1904 and who died in 1991.

Dr. Seuss is widely known for his children’s books that were full of imaginative characters and clever rhymes. According to Wikipedia, Dr. Seuss’ “most celebrated books include the bestselling Green Eggs and Ham, The Cat in the Hat, One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish, Horton Hatches the Egg, Horton Hears a Who!, and How the Grinch Stole Christmas!

In the Community House rendition of Green Eggs and Ham, the Cat in the Hat gave an animated reading that had the Head Start children reacting with comments from their seats throughout.

To see for yourself, paste the following URL into your browser to view the YouTube video:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rkn0lAPlxQs

For more information on the West Haven Community House’s Head Start pre-school program, call (203) 934-5221. Applications for Fall 2012 enrollment are now being accepted.