Dear Families,
Hope you all are doing well, and still enjoying your time at home with your families. We are still incorporating learning from home activities. This week we have added more websites for you to explore. We will also want to add these letters to our weekly learning. The letters that you can review with your child this week are J, K, I, Q, U, R, and V. With these letters you can practice sounding them out, tracing them, and looking to see if you see these letters in a book, on TV, and even in your name when writing it.

MATH/LANGUAGE ARTS/SCIENCE/SOCIAL STUDIES AND SPANISH

Here we have a great website that offers numerous learning areas, from Math to Science, as well as Spanish. This website offers preschool learning activities as well as kindergarten. But the entire website goes up to 12th grade learning.

LITERACY

Here we have a fun activity for our literacy leaning. Using items around your house such as salt or sugar on a plate, an using your fingers to write letters. You can also try writing those letters mentioned above to trace.

PHYSICAL

Here we have some physical activities that you can do indoors, a lot of jumping and exercising

PARENTS PLEASE SUPERVISE YOUR CHILDREN WHEN USING TABLET/COMPUTER DEVICES

We hope that these little activities are helpful for keeping your preschooleer busy and engaged.

We hope to see you all very soon...Stay safe and enjoy the time home with siblings and families.

We will have the next newsletter sent out on the 20th of April. 2020
